The diving

Experience Taganga, where Colombia meets the Caribbean, and enjoy diving in the marine protected area of Tayrona National Park.

Nearly all dive sites in this area are located in the national park, only a few minutes away by boat. Due to the sandy and rocky grounds you will see different corals than normally found in the Caribbean and there is a guarantee schools of colorful reef fish will accompany on your dives – even dolphins and turtles if you are lucky.

The 22 dive sites within Tayrona National Park combines pinnacles of coral reef, sunken ships, caves, and a variety of marine ecosystems. The sites offer diving for everyone, beginner or professional, with both shallow and calm sites but also sites great for deep and drift diving due to strong currents in some areas. It's the perfect place to challenge yourself and your diving skills.

On top of the supreme diving, Taganga is also the gateway to the famous Lost City Trek, beautiful waterfalls and will probably have you stay longer than planned with its contagious beach village vibe.

Location

Taganga is an old fishing village located just 15 minutes from the big bustling Santa Marta. It is known to be a popular destination for backpackers wishing to stay close to the water, have a couple of drinks and dive in a relaxed atmosphere (of course not in that order). The main road along the beach, is filled with fishermen and local kids playing football during the day. In the evening, when the temperature drops, the restaurants, cafés and beach front attracts divers, hikers and backpackers alike. The many activities around Taganga and Tayrona National Park will keep you busy for days and are also the reason why many travelers end up extending their stay in this area of Colombia.

Your Guesthouse

La Casa Felipe is your cozy home during your stay. This colourful little pearl has great communal areas, is filled with plenty of hammocks to hang out in and it is located just a five minute walk from the beach and the dive center. It is super clean and cozy, with the friendliest reception staff, who are happy to help you plan your onward travels, or trekking in Tayrona! If you prefer to cook your own food, there is a little communal kitchen. The French and Colombian couple that owns this cool little hostel in Taganga, offers tasty breakfast options and afternoon/evening meals at low cost. There's laundry service and free WIFI.

Your room - Dorm accommodation

2 spacious mixed female/male dorm rooms, with 5 & 8 comfortable single beds. Private bathroom, fan cooling and semi-hot water for your shower (This you will realise is quite a standard for Colombia, but if you want a hot shower, you can take one at the dive center, where they will provide you towels after your diving for that exact purpose).

This is only a selection of the many dive sites represented on this particular destination. Dive sites are picked on a daily basis, and is dictated by the experience level of the divers and the safeness of the environment.

Our dive center in Taganga is special in many ways. Besides being utterly professional, they are known for taking their divers to the best dive sites, not the nearest!

Isla de La Aguja

This island, 15 minutes from Taganga Bay, is home to four of the best dive sites in Tayrona National Park. These dive sites are perfect year around, as the dive center will moor the boat on the calm side of the island and let you decide how challenging you want your dive to be. If you like to play around in strong currents, we can really recommend a drift dive on the western side of the island. If cute Puffer and Angelfish are more you, hang out on the shallow top reef, where the conditions are calm. While you're there, see if you can find a Spotted Moray eel poking its head out from it's little cave.

Morrito Largo

Not too far away from Isla de La Aguja, you will find a very calm area, well protected from trade winds, which makes it perfect to spot the Hawksbill turtles that usually hangs out here. You will find many patches of coral and a large amount of different species of reef fish – even huge schools of fish, which is always a fantastic sight, often pass by!

El Torrin

Without a doubt one of the dives which almost guarantees the best visibility. This dive is to a maximum of 18m, on a reef covered with a wide variety of coral species with impressively large colonies of moose and brain corals.

El Coro point

If you're trained in cave or cavern diving, and holds a certificate of Advanced or Deep diver, this is a must do in Taganga.

Conditions:

Getting to Taganga from:

Santa Marta Airport (SMR):

When arriving in Santa Marta International Airport you have two choices of transportation. The cheapest way to get to Taganga is by public busses, the first one leaves just outside of the arrival hall (there's only one bus line leaving from the airport, so you can't miss it) That will take you to Carrera 5 in the center of Santa Marta. From there catch any bus that says 'Kra.11 Taganga' to Taganga. The journey takes around 30-40 minutes and will cost you around 1EUR. The busses run every 10-15 minutes from 06.00 to 21.00 (6 am - 9 pm)

The easier option is to take a taxi from Santa Marta Airport to Taganga. Remember to always negotiate the price before getting into the car to avoid misunderstandings. The ride should not cost you more than 35.000 pesos (10 EUR) during the day and 50.000 pesos (13 EUR) at night. We recommend this option after dark.

Cartagena or Barranquilla:

It is no problem to travel from west to east on the northern coast of Colombia. From Cartagena several minivan services will take you to directly to Taganga. They even offer hostel to hostel drop off and pick up. The journey from Cartagena takes around five hours and costs approximately 52.000 pesos (15 EUR) one way, from Barranquilla three hours and costs 35.000 pesos (10 EUR).
