

Dhangeti Island, Maldives Snorkelling Dhangethi Island

The snorkelling

Dangling like a string of pearls below the Indian subcontinent, the Maldives has always been the epitome of tropical island holidays. With no mainland within hundreds of miles, the crystal clear waters of the Indian Ocean is a water paradise. What sets the Maldives apart from other destinations is the teeming abundance of marine life. Due to the strict sustainable fishing policies, the ecosystems are intact and the reefs are healthy.

The location of our dive center on Rasdhoo is within easy reach of the most legendary of the dive sites in The Maldives! We invite you to go snorkelling where Manta Rays, graceful sharks and all kinds of sea creatures gives the impression of an undersea rush hour. And with the numbers of divers/snorkellers per site being much lower than elsewhere, many of these fabulous creatures are as curious about us as we are about them!

For that reason, We LOVE the Maldives!

Dhangeti Island, Maldives Snorkelling Dhangethi Island

Location

Rasdhoo is a fine little atoll 32 miles west of the capital Male. Consisting of only four islands and a deserted sandbank, the numbers of visitors to this atoll is charmingly low, and Rasdhoo Island still enjoys a largely undiscovered status. Staying on a local inhabited island provides a very different, very REAL Maldivian experience, where the locals are eager to welcome explorers. Rasdhoo has a population of 1200, and is very proud to have a post office and even an ATM.

The unique shape of Rasdhoo, has created a perfect habitat for a variety of marine life, and it is particularly rich in schools of pelagic fish. Dolphins, turtles, manta rays smaller sharks and flocks of eagle rays are regularly seen, and beautiful coral gardens provide safe and easy snorkeling.

Your guesthouse

Accommodation is organized by the dive center in tastefully decorated, comfortable guesthouses on Rasdhoo. All rooms are air conditioned with private bathroom.

Your Room

Rooms come with tile flooring, airconditioning, twin or double beds. All rooms overlook the garden and have private bathrooms with hot and cold water. Free Wifi in the lobby area.

The snorkling sites are picked on a dayily basis, depending on the weather and ocean conditions.

This is only a selection of the many dive and snorkling sites represented on this particular destination. All snorkelling tours are guided by local guides, who will be eager to show you the wonderful marine life found in the turquoise waters of The Maldives.

Madivaru Corner

A few minutes by boat from Rasdhoo lies the uninhabited island of Madivaru, home to Madivaru corner, Madivaru channel and the famous Hammerhead Point dive sites. Madivaru corner is rated as a 5-star site, boasting superb overhangs and a dizzying array of large species such as Grey reef sharks, white tips, eagle rays, napoleon wrasse, schools of barracuda, giant trevallies to name but a few. On occasion mantas and dolphins are seen here, to add to an already dazzling display. With visibility seldom less than 20m and often exceeding 40m, this site never disappoints!

Bodu Gaa

Also known as Manta Block. The agenda here is to drop to a sandy bottom at 16m and watch the show as manta rays circle the coral block feeding on plankton washing through Rasdhoo North Channel. The mantas are not shy, and divers often get a show lasting for the entire dive. If you are snorkling this site, you will be able to free dive from the surface with these beautiful creatures. Seeing their dancing from above and between, is a great perspective!

Maya Thila and Fish Head

On a day trip from Rasdhoo you can dive the renowned Maldivian sites of Fish Head and Maya Thila. These reefs are protected and it shows. An abundance of sharks, rays, jacks and a myriad of other species haunt this site, made more enjoyable by interesting overhangs, caverns and coral structures jutting into the blue. Even the safety stop is memorable, with hundreds of curious batfish circling the divers and unicorn fish finding a spot above your head to get their thrill playing in your bubbles. Not to be missed!
